Lori Elder

Lori Elder is well known as a pianist, teacher and adjudicator. She is the author of the popular advice column Ask Lori: Teaching Tips for Everyday Lessons in Canadian Music Teacher magazine. She holds a Masters Degree in Piano Performance, a Bachelor of Music and an ARCT. The winner of numerous competitions, Lori has performed as a soloist and chamber player in many regions of Canada and the United States. She has worked with many distinguished conductors and ensembles, and she has been broadcast on CBC radio and CTV.

Lori has taught in Toronto, Vancouver and Edmonton, and she currently teaches in Prince George BC, where she specializes in senior piano and pedagogy. Lori's students are prize winners in regional and provincial competitions, and many have won RCM Gold Medals. In addition, many of her students have been concerto soloists with various orchestras throughout BC. Lori's latest studio CD is Piano Music for Earth Hour, and her articles on piano studies have been published in Clavier, Progressions, Canadian Music Teacher, Notations, BC Parent and Okanagan Child.
